

Black History Month Brochure Project

Due: February 28, 2017

Directions: Create a brochure featuring a famous African American. Research their lives and the impact they've had on society, and use this information to fill out the brochure. Use drawings and colors to make your brochure pop!

Option 1: Use your neatest handwriting to fill the brochure with information about the person you chose.

Option 2: Type your information for each section, print it out, and glue it onto the brochure. CAUTION: Make sure the sections you type fit into the corresponding section the brochure.

Option 3: Make a digital version of the brochure using the same section headings on the brochure provided.

On February 28th bring your brochure in and you'll have a chance to share what you've learned with the class!

-If you anything happens and you need a second brochure, I will upload a copy to the class section of the Rolling Hills website so that you can download and print it out. It will be in the calendar section on the due date.
