Friends to the End—for kids

(Elementary-5th Book-of-Month #1)

“But when a friend calls, you slam on the brakes, turn around, and then come running as fast as you can” - Friends to the End for Kids

This month’s ABC book: “Friends to the End for Kids: The True Value of Friendship” by Bradley Trevor Greive uses engaging photos of animals to illustrate how to make friends, keep friends, and the importance of friends.

Goals of lesson:

- 1. Learn how to respect each other.
 - Develop interpersonal skills for getting along with each other.
- 2. Explore ways to be kind to each other.
 - Be inclusive and accepting of differences.
 - School is a place where everyone belongs.
- 3. Be UPstanders online and in our face-to-face world.

To reinforce this lesson at home:

- Share some stories about your own friendships.
- Here are some questions you can discuss with your child:
 - What do you like most about your friends? Do they bring out the best in you? Do you bring out the best in them? How do you show your friends that you care about them? How do your friends handle conflict when it arises?
